SGO Annual Meeting Demographics

Since 1969, women’s health care professionals have convened at the Society of Gynecologic Oncology (SGO)’s Annual Meeting on Women’s Cancer® to discuss the latest science in the field, receive educational programming and network. Now in its 52nd year, the SGO Annual Meeting continues to be the premier educational and scientific event for those who treat and care for women with gynecologic cancers.

In-Person Attendance
SGO’s 2019 meeting achieved record-breaking attendance of 2,541 attendees, categorized as follows:

- 933 – Gynecologic Oncologists
- 176 – Fellows-in-Training
- 146 – Residents
- 135 – Physicians/Scientists/Researchers
- 34 – Nurse Practitioners
- 62 – Medical Oncologists
- 49 – Ob-Gyn’s
- 24 – Physician Assistant
- 18 – Pharmacists/Oncology Pharmacists
- 31 – Advocates & Patient Advocates
- 18 – Nurses/Oncology Nurses
- 19 – Medical Students
- 22 – Radiation Oncologists
  – Genetic Counselors
  – Pathologists

Virtual AM Attendance
SGO’s 2020 meetings Average attendance of 528 Attendees and are broken down by session:

- 710 – Novel Discoveries
- 1066 – Paradigm Changes
- 363 – Rare Tumors
- 459 – Molecular testing
- 380 – Surgical Innovations
- 569 – Front line Ovarian
- 348 – Genetic Discoveries
- 300 – Developmental Therapeutics